 - iiii) Confirm arrangements for the forthcoming year's events where possible.
 - v) Consider any other competent AGM business.
 - vi) Office bearers and committee member will be elected and appointed.
- c). Delegates to associations to which the Club is affiliated should be nominated at and endorsed by the AGM where practically possible.
- d). An Annual General Meeting has power to elect as Honorary Life Members, any member who have rendered special services to the Club.
- e). Proposed alteration of existing rules or additions to them shall be given in writing to the General Secretary 21 days before the date of the AGM.
- f). An agenda giving a complete list of the proposed alterations and/ or additions to the rules shall be available seven days prior to the date of AGM.
- g). All prizes and trophies shall be presented at the AGM or other Club function as decided by the committee.
5. a). The financial year of the Club shall be from the 1st of November to 31st October.
- b). All monies of the Club shall be banked in the named account of the Club. Payments from the Club account shall require authorisation from two of the following nominated approved signatories; Chairperson, General Secretary, Treasurer. Following approval by the committee.

6. a). The General secretary will give notice in writing of Committee Meetings seven days in advance.
- b). The Committee may call a Special General Meeting on any specific points of interest or if called to do so by a motion signed by at least four members accompanied by a fee of £20, which would be returned if the motion is carried. At least 20% of the membership must participate at any Special General Meeting to form a quorum. The format of the meeting may be by electronic means. No subsequent rule following the SGM meeting may be altered nor rescinded except by a majority vote by two thirds of the members. Voting may be by electronic means.
- c). The quorum for Committee meetings shall be five members.
- d). The Committee shall have the power to fill vacancies in its number as they occur and to co-opt members for specific tasks.
- e). Whenever a Committee member has a personal interest in a matter to be discussed, he/she must declare it, withdraw from that part of the meeting (unless asked to stay), not be counted in the quorum for that agenda item and withdraw during the vote and have no vote on the matter concerned.
- f). The chair of the committee meeting shall have a casting vote.
- g). Delegation. The Committee may delegate any of their functions to sub-committees but must specify the scope of its activity and powers; the extent to which it can commit the funds of the Club; its membership; its duty to report back to the Committee. The Committee may wind up any sub-committee at any time or to change its mandate and operating terms.
- h). The Committee can appoint as Honorary members Timekeepers, Marshals, The auditor and other supporters whose current service to the PCC warrants such recognition.
- i). The Committee shall neither indulge in nor attempt anything of a hazardous nature that may affect endanger the Club financially, nor shall they contribute any portion of the funds to any organisation or individual unless such contribution is for the benefit of the sport or sanctioned by the Committee.
- j). All matters involving financial implications except the normal day-to-day running of the Club by the Treasurer must have prior approval of the Committee.

7. The Committee is empowered to discipline any member whom it considers has;
 - i). failed to observe the rules of the PCC, ESCA or SC or
 - ii). acted in a manner detrimental to the Club, the sport or the governing bodies.

Any Disciplinary Action deemed necessary shall be:-

- a). A written warning, or
- b). temporary suspension for membership of the Club or
- c). expulsion from the Club.

A hearing shall be called by the Committee to which the said member shall be invited. The decision of the committee shall be made within 14 days and delivered in writing to the Club member. The member will have the right to one appeal, but the decision of the committee will stand and be upheld until such time as a convenient time can be made for an appeal to be arranged and heard. The committee's decision following appeal will be final. Any member so expelled may not be readmitted, except by approval of two thirds of the members voting at a Committee meeting.

8. In the event of the Club having insufficient funds to meet its debts a Special General Meeting shall be called to fix a levy upon the members such levy shall be fixed and borne pro rata.

To ensure prudent fiscal management a figure should be agreed at the first Committee meeting following the AGM which will provide a sum below which the Club funds should not fall below. It is recommended that this figure should be set at £2000 (Two Thousand Pounds). Should the bank balance be close to this figure the treasurer should notify committee members and a meeting arranged to ensure that Club activities are revised to ensure that funds are available to meet obligations in that financial year.

9. The members may vote to wind up the Club if not less than three quarters of those present and voting support that proposal at a properly convened general meeting. The Committee will then be responsible for the orderly winding up of the Club's affairs. After settling all liabilities of the Club, the Committee shall have the power to transfer all monies, assets and trophies of the Club into the custody of three nominated trustees for safekeeping. Any assets purchased with lottery funding will be distributed to another non-profit making body with similar aims. Any unspent lottery funding will be returned to the source. The trustees may at a later date transfer monies, assets and trophies to one of the following:
 - i). To another Club with similar sports purposes which is a charity or
 - ii). Scottish Cycling for use by them for similar purpose.

RACING RULES

10. All members must fully comply with the Rules set down by the regulation of Cycle racing by the Scottish Cycling and British Cycling.
11. The race secretary will ensure that:
 - a) The Time Trial Regulations are available for members on the PCC website.
 - b) Events for the forthcoming season are available for members 21 days prior to the new season starting. A list of trophies and the criteria for winning the events will also be published prior to the start of the season.
 - c) Will endeavour to notify riders (where possible) of any weather or road conditions likely to influence events. However, it is the riders own responsibility whether to compete and to use their own judgment based on road / weather conditions. No liability will be accepted by either the race secretary, fellow competitors nor committee members of PCC.
 - d) Where events have to be cancelled due to road or weather conditions the race secretary shall consult with the time keepers and marshals prior to making a decision and that decision will be final.
 - a). The race secretary shall record all members performances in Open and Confined events.

 - b). Members must submit to the Race Secretary details of their performance in open events within fourteen days of the Event.

 - c). Members should submit to the Race Secretary details of their performance in open events within fourteen days of the Event.
13. To be eligible for any PCC trophy a member must have completed at least eight of the qualifying events. To be awarded the Hill-climb trophy a member must complete at least seven other PCC events, either open or confined. Exceptions to this ruling will be at the discretion of the race secretary, for example, in exceptional circumstances where a low turn-out precludes the usual criteria to be fulfilled. However, it is the duty of the race secretary to check the start sheet and ensure that competitors are aware and advised accordingly of any significant changes made to any previous rulings.
14. The committee will maintain a list of the PCC trophies and the events for which they are awarded. The rules and regulations governing eligibility for all awards will be published after they have received membership endorsement at the AGM.
